SHOW: "The Revolutionists", Lauren Gunderson

"Sometimes, a revolution needs a woman's touch." – Marie Antoinette

In this sassy, hold-on-to-your-seats theatrical adventure, four beautiful, badass women hang out, murder Marat, and try to beat back the extremist insanity of 1793 Paris. This grand and dream-tweaked comedy is about violence and legacy, art and activism, feminism and terrorism, compatriots and chosen sisters, and how we actually go about changing the world. It is a true story. Or total fiction. Or a raucous resurrection...

The Revolutionists is a call to action for all – grab your red sash and go!

Lauren Gunderson is one of the top 20 most-produced playwrights in the United States, and in 2016 was America's most produced living playwright.
